

GWM is a member of Barter Card

We at GWM are proud to be associated with the barter card group.

We offer a full range of services to Barter Card members, their friends and business associates.

Whilst GWM are located on the mid north coast of NSW we service clients over NSW, Queensland and Victoria. We have a significant number of international clients, particularly from South Africa, the United Kingdom and North America.

If you have legal or conveyancing needs please contact Bob Gillroy, Solicitor Director on our office number, 02 6583 5266 to confirm yourself the advantages of using professional services of GWM.

We have staff well skilled in Business Transactional matters, Land and Property development, Criminal Law and Family Disputes.

We at GWM have long provided advice to the business community in Insolvency matters, Business Restructuring and Asset Protection.

Our wider services can be reviewed by going to our web site at www.gwmlaw.com.au.

For the assistance of our clients we provide regular newsletters, both as hardcopy and email. If you would like to be included on our regular newsletter mailing list please contact the office

The newsletters are designed to minimize the complexity of the law and to keep you, as a business operator abreast of new developments.

The newsletters are published in a number of areas designed to assist the business operator including Franchise News, Commercial Law, Sports Law and Property Services. Periodically additional documents are produced to assist.

We believe that the newsletters provide insightful and practical information that ensures that you are driving your business to succeed

Given this vulnerable business market and the vagaries of modern commerce, we believe that the publications offer concise and information material that both you and your staff can apply in your everyday operations.

Indeed, we invite comments from readers on subjects that maybe of interest and will gladly publish responses.

Join in and become a regular recipient of these informative papers.

Barter Card is a long term strategic commitment of GWM. We look forward to meeting you and sharing the success of this innovative business network.

What GWM can do for you

GWM Commercial serves the individual and small business legal needs of the Mid North Coast, Australia, Australian National and International businesses.

We at GWM Lawyers provide legal advice and assistance to the business community of the Mid North Coast.

We provide business support and can act as a sounding board for your business development.

Because of our size, our connections and the esteem in which we are held, particularly in the Mid North Coast region, we can help you find contacts and help you build business alliances.

We can negotiate on your behalf.

We can share our business networks and assist you build solid relationships that will ensure your business success.

But we at GWM can do more.

We will keep you informed by explaining options and strategies that will make smoother the path that you follow in your business life.

Whilst we work normal business hours we are happy to provide assistance at times when you need us. If this means working outside of traditional business hours then we will accommodate.

We will come to your business, if that is what is required, because we will gain a greater understanding of you, your objectives and the tasks that must be done.

We want to know about you, your family, your business and the total of your aspirations and life plan. By understanding these objectives we can better understand you.

Our relationship with you is a partnership. Your success ensures our success. Our success is measured by the longevity of our relationships with our clients.

We at GWM want to consolidate our position as the dominant provider of business advice and guidance on the Mid North Coast and we can only achieve these objectives by working with our client base to achieve their objectives.

As the goals of our clients are achieved, the strength of GWM is similarly grown.

But we can only do these things if we develop an open and honest and candid relationship with you.

We will, from time to time tell you things that you don't want to hear. We do this because it is our job. It is our responsibility to protect you and serve you and your business interests.

GWM is not a team of "Yes Men". We are a team of professional advisors dedicated to enhancing your business.
